

Mental Health and wellbeing of deaf or hard of hearing infants, children, young people and their families

Presented by the Deafness Mental Health Project, CHQ CYMHS

Date: Tuesday 27 February

Time: 8.30am – 11.30am

Venue: Auditorium Level 7, Lady Cilento Children's Hospital, 501 Stanley St, South Brisbane

Cost: Free - catering provided.

Register: To register please; Click here

Auslan interpreters will be available at the seminar

Alana Roy: Counsellor & Mental Health Social Worker

"The bio-psycho-social-cultural and spiritual health of Deaf and Hard of Hearing People"

Sheena Helton: Lived experience "Deaf world"

Julian Scharf: Lived experience "Growing up with a hearing loss"

Andrea Murray: Advanced Speech Pathologist and Infant Mental Clinician, Queensland Centre for Perinatal and Infant Mental Health (QCPIMH)

"Shall we Dance?" parent-child relationships in the early years

Valerie Green: Family Support Facilitator, Queensland Hearing Loss Family Support Service (QHLFSS)

"Learning to listen to a baby who cannot hear – Infant Mental Health and Hearing Loss"

For Videoconferencing and Telephone linking

- Conference ID: 1336726
- QLD Health Participants: 800014
- Non QLD Health Participants: 800014@health.qld.gov.au
- Phone Participants: 1300 590 084 followed by 800014

For more information, please contact:

Katrina Hegarty
CYMHS

e: Katrina.hegarty2@health.qld.gov.au

